Training CDs

With NCSL Training CD's you can customize your leadership training...choose a single program or build an entire library. Training CDs are the affordable and flexible solution to building student leadership skills.

Approximately 30 minutes each, these video programs fit into even the busiest schedule. Each one is lead by a top-rated presenter, and includes a PowerPoint and supplemental handouts.

Building Effective Communities Across Difference

Presented by Rev. Dr. Jamie Washington

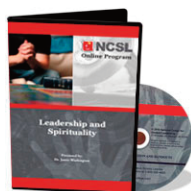

Diversity means little in an organization ... unless it exists in the context of community.

For Better or For Worse: The Impact of Political Correctness

Presented by Dr. Maura Cullen

This program offers you practical ways to quickly transform the quality and effectiveness of your communication skills that are vital to your success.

Leadership and Spirituality

Presented by Rev. Dr. Jamie Washington

Questions of spirituality need to be examined in an organizational context.

Navigating Team Conflicts: Recognizing Your Triggers

Presented by Dr. Kathy Obear

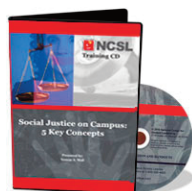

Mismanaged hot buttons can result in escalating conflict, deep misunderstanding, and resentment that can fester and create barriers to inclusion, collaboration, and productivity.

Recognizing and Responding to Exclusionary Team Behaviors

Presented by Dr. Kathy Obear

Too often during meetings and discussions we don't recognize the subtle and covert forms of indifference and exclusionary behaviors that can undermine group effectiveness, creativity, retention, and morale.

Social Justice on Campus: 5 Key Concepts

Presented by Vernon Wall, M.S.

In this program, you'll learn five key concepts that will give you tools to enhance conversations in your organizations, on your campus, and in your communities. "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."
